The Frederick County Council has adopted a Code of Civility to its Rules of Procedure to promote civil discourse in the conduct of County meetings and other County business. This Code of Civility is intended to encourage citizens - led through example by elected and appointed County officials - to abide by and exhibit behavior guided by the following: Be respectful; speak and act politely, calmly, and reasonably. Do not resort to personal attacks, name-calling, or harassment. Be responsible: Demonstrate fairness by ensuring that all who speak have an opportunity to present their respective positions. Treat all speakers equally.

Frederick County Government does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, marital status, disability, familial status, gender identity, sexual orientation, or source of income.

The County's Ethics Ordinance (Section 1.7-1.8 of the Code) requires the registration of individuals and entities that qualify as lobbyists. If you will be testifying before the County Council, the Ordinance may require that you register as a lobbyist. If you have a question as to the applicability of this Ordinance, please contact the County Attorney's Office at (301) 600-1030.
